To celebrate the Army's 243rd Birthday, the Army Heritage Center Foundation will host Central Pennsylvania's sixth annual Army Birthday Dinner at the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center on June 2, 2018 beginning at 6:00 p.m. The event allows the region to honor the U.S. Army, its Soldiers, Veterans, and their families. The highlight of this year's event includes a swearing in ceremony of new Army volunteers and our guest speaker, General Frederick Franks, Jr., USA Retired. General Franks is the former commander of the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command and commanded the VII Corps during Operations Desert Shield/Desert Storm.

Belco Community Credit Union recently awarded five scholarships to help student member-owners meet their higher education goals. Belco has been awarding scholarships to members for more than 24 years. This is possible in part because of Elton "Miller" Peterman, a true visionary as one of Belco's founding fathers. In his honor, Belco renamed its scholarship program in 2004 to the Elton "Miller" Peterman Scholarship program. The scholarship winners were chosen in March and honored at Belco's annual meeting held on April 21, 2018. Belco received nearly 130 applications for this year's awards.

Lehman Property Management is excited to announce our very own Kelsey Lehman, in our Community Association Management Division (CAMD) is now a Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA). She is the third in our company to receive this certification, but she is the youngest and least experienced of our team members thus far, to have passed the exam. Lehman Property Managements property managers, Glenn Lehman and Sherlie Serrano, spent a few days at the beginning of May advocating for the property management industry. Kicking off their time in Washington D.C., Glenn and Sherlie toured the the Capitol with Congressman Brat of Virginia. Being surrounded by others who were equally excited for change fanned the flame of their passion for advancement. After the tour, they listened to Krista Mills, Deputy Assistant Secretary for the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development, and Mark Bowersox, Executive Vice President of Industry Relations. Mark Bowersox's question and answer session dealt with manufactured homes, which has the commonality of issues we face in the property management industry. Day on the Hill provided knowledge, and created an opportunity to stay up-to-date with the property management industry. These purposes encompass our mission statement to be the technical & ethical leaders in the property management industry, and share our knowledge with the world.

Mowery, an industry-leading construction company based in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, is proud to announce the promotion of three team members to vice president roles.
