Barley Snyder is proud to announce that attorney Kevin Myhre has been named to the executive board of the Chester County Council of the Boy Scouts of America and that associate EmmaRose Boyle has been named to board positions at two important Berks County organizations: Berks Community Television, the nonprofit corporation overseeing the live TV station dedicated to the Berks County community and Pennsylvania's Americana Region, an organization dedicated to promoting tourism and visitation throughout Berks County. Two attorneys from Barley Snyder, Partners Joshua Schwartz and Salvatore Anastasi, were instrumental in authoring an American Bar Association amicus brief filed in a U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (CAFC) patent case that will ensure "access to justice," a core principle of the ABA. The prestigious "Best Lawyers" list has named 16 Barley Snyder attorneys to its annual rankings for 2019. Best Lawyers has released its list each year for more than three decades. The lists are compiled through peer-review surveys in which tens of thousands of attorneys confidentially evaluate their professional peers. Barley Snyder is pleased to announce it has hired John M. Quain Jr. as its newest attorney. Quain – who goes by "J." – is an associate in the Litigation Practice Group of the firm and will be based out of its new Harrisburg office.
