

KONHAUS PRINT & MARKETING CELEBRATES NEW OWNERSHIP

CAMP HILL, PA: On Thursday, May 9th, to coincide with National Small Business Week, Konhaus Print & Marketing celebrated new ownership of the business with a ribbon cutting celebration. In January, Sarah Barr, a long-time employee of Konhaus officially took over as Owner. Paul Konhaus, Jr. who sold the business to Sarah says, "I couldn't feel any better knowing I sold my company to an employee that is as honest and hard-working as Sarah. I know our customers and employees are in the right hands, and I am excited to see what she will do in the future." Though these exciting changes have taken place over the last couple months, Konhaus assures that the business is continuing as usual. All the employees and location are remaining the same, along with the great products and services they already provide. Eager for growth, Konhaus Print & Marketing looks to the future to be able to expand what they have to offer to their clients.
