Junior Achievement is seeking volunteers at Harrisburg Area schools for our STEM, Financial Literacy, and Work Readiness programs. When we are looking at the one-day events scheduled within the next 30 days, we consider those events in the "Red Zone". At this point we are looking for the "Volunteers Needed" number to be on a solid descending glide path. With 127 one day events this school year we know we are going to end up with some events that, even after all of our recruiting efforts, are posing a challenge. Please contact Allison Kierce at akierce@jascpa.org for more info and dates that they need help filling!

McKonly & Asbury's Collaborate 2019 Conference is scheduled for November 7. It features a can't miss keynote, general sessions, and breakout sessions to choose from. Learn more and register at: <https://collaborate2019conference.eventbrite.com>

Mowery has been named a Platinum STEP Safety Award recipient for the second consecutive year. This prestigious award demonstrates Mowery's commitment to enhancing their safety procedures to reduce jobsite accidents. To be awarded the Platinum STEP Safety Award, Mowery's total recordable incident rate (TRIR) had to be 25 percent below the NAICS code average and their experience modification rate (EMR) had to be 0.8. Being honored with the platinum status means Mowery is 300 percent safer than the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics industry average. Mowery is pleased to announce the addition of John Rivera, Garry Baublitz, Jr., Greg Robbins, Matt Baker, Coty Gall, and Eric Myers to the Mowery team.

The event was attended by Orrstown associates, Make-A-Wish® representatives, members of the local business community, the wish recipient and his family. Orrstown Bank contributed $7,500 to Make-A-Wish® in order to fund the initiative. In addition to Orrstown and Make-A-Wish, event support was provided by Chick-Fil-A of Harrisburg, Hershey Entertainment and Resorts, JPL Integrated Communications, Nicole Wood Photography, and Alex Waters.

Patient First will offer free digital X-ray imaging of Halloween candy. This is fun for the trick-or-treaters as they get to look at the peanuts and other treats inside of their candy. That makes for a happy visit to the doctor's office. One that may ease some anxiety when they are sick and return for another reason. X-ray imaging can also provide parents additional peace of mind about the treats their children receive by possibly detecting objects like, glass, metal or plastic. Bags of candy may be brought into any Patient First Neighborhood Medical Center from October 26th through November 3rd.

Anthony Maggio brings more than 15 years of experience to Pennian Bank. He's a volunteer on the planning committee for the United Way of Carlisle, serves on the Board for Hampden Aquatic Club (HAC) and has been a youth coach for the East Pennsboro Youth Athletic League for the past ten years. In his new position, Maggio will be a Commercial Loan Officer, working primarily out of the Harrisburg area.

PYRAMID CONSTRUCTION SERVICES, INC., recently broke ground on the new headquarters for the Pennsylvania Medical Society. The new 27,500 sq. ft. building will be located at Delta Pointe in Silver Spring Township, Mechanicsburg, and is expected to be completed in July of 2020. Currently under construction is a Nano Scratch Room at the Tröegs Independent Brewing facility at 200 Hersheypark Drive in Hershey. The project is expected to be completed in December 2019.

RKL LLP once again stands among the Best Places to Work in Pennsylvania. 2019 marks the third straight year the professional services firm has been recognized as part of a statewide awards program celebrating the commonwealth's top 100 workplaces. "We take pride in offering our team members the chance to reimagine professional services and deliver industry leading innovations," said RKL CEO Edward W. Monborne. "Being named a Best Place to Work in Pennsylvania for a third consecutive year is an important affirmation of the positive culture we foster here at RKL and the dedication of our talented team."
