

Pennian Bank Celebrates First Branch in Cumberland County

CAMP HILL, PA: On Thursday, August 29th, Pennian Bank opened its first branch in Cumberland County at 559 N 12th Street in Lemoyne. Pennian Bank is based out of Mifflintown and was founded in 1864. The bank was previously known as The First National Bank of Mifflintown and changed its name to Pennian Bank in 2017. It holds a large presence in Perry County and has conducted commercial business in Cumberland County for many years, but this is the bank's first physical location in the county. The branch was renovated and updated from a former Fulton Bank location. Nathan Cook will serve as the branch executive offices for the location. The bank currently has 12 branch offices in Juniata and Perry counties and one additional office for trust and investment services. To learn more about the Pennian Bank visit their website at www.pennianbank.com and see the attached photo from the celebration.
