

Central Penn College Opens Advancement Office

CAMP HILL, PA: On October 5th, Central Penn College (CPC) celebrated the official opening of its Advancement Office in a ceremony outside the historic Boyer House on the college's Summerdale campus. Leading the Advancement Office is Michael Fedor, who was named Vice President for Advancement and Strategic Initiatives in April. Since joining the college, he has hit the ground running, launching the Corporate Education Program... revamping the business and community Partner Program... and instituting the low-cost Cultural Enrichment Program, along with the non-credit Telehealth course for healthcare workers.
