At a time when business growth is difficult, Barley Snyder has made strategic moves in the last quarter of 2020 to increase its offerings to clients and the latest is a significant expansion of its York office. The law firm announced it has added three new attorneys in the office, along with an additional paralegal and legal assistant. The announcement comes on the heels of the firm's expansion at its Gettysburg office in November. The attorneys joining Barley Snyder effective Jan. 4: J. Robert Katherman, Stacey R. MacNeal, Jayne R. Katherman and Linda L. Shaffer. The five come to the firm from the former Katherman & Perry law firm, which announced in the fall it would close at the end of 2020. Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that attorney Peter J. Faben has been named a partner at the firm and the hire of Lauren D. Berkowitz as an immigration attorney at its Lancaster office.

Belco Community Credit Union is now accepting applications for its annual scholarship program. The credit union will award $5,000 to five students attending a traditional or technical college for the fall 2021 semester. For this year's program, applicants are asked to write a short essay about the importance of community involvement or providing service to others. Candidates will also provide information on activities (school and community), academic standing, and work experience. Students can visit belco.org/scholarship-program to review the rules and requirements and complete the online application. Applications are due March 1, and winners will be announced in April. Amey Sgrignoli, Belco President & CEO, was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of Credit Union National Association (CUNA). Sgrignoli was elected to serve a three-year term representing credit unions in District 1. All newly elected directors will take office following the CUNA Annual General Meeting, which will be held virtually during the CUNA Governmental Affairs Conference (GAC) on March 2.

January is National Mentoring Month and Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Capital Region is taking this opportunity to recognize and thank their Cumberland County Community Partners. During the past year, Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Capital Region supported 130 mentoring matches in Cumberland County. BBBSCR offered resources, guidance, and virtual activities to our Bigs, Littles and families throughout the pandemic. The board and staff of Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Capital Region want to take this opportunity to thank and recognize our Cumberland County volunteers, mentors and community partners who made this possible. Our heartfelt thanks go out to everyone who made donations to support us during the past year. And finally, to all of you who make our work possible -- donors, friends, volunteers, and families -- thank you. Together, we are defenders of the potential that lies in every child. In the coming year, BBBSCR will continue to create and support one-to-one mentoring relationships that ignite the power and promise of youth. We look forward to everything we will achieve together in 2021.
