The Army Heritage Center Foundation, Humana, and Mission BBQ are teaming together to host a Watchfire ceremony for Veterans and Active Duty service men and women on Sunday, May 30 at the Event Pavilion at the U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (USAHEC) in Carlisle, PA. Veterans and Active Duty personnel of all services and eras are welcome. The Watchfire ceremony draws on an old tradition when armies would light fires at the end of a march or battle to help lost or straggling Soldiers find their way back to their units. This Watchfire is an opportunity for Veterans to gather in fellowship to honor each other, our comrades in uniform, and the U.S. service men and women who have defended our nation throughout history. The Watchfire ceremony will begin at 8:15 and conclude by 8:30. Mission BBQ will sponsor meals for attendees beginning at 7:00 PM. Seating for the meal is limited and RSVPs are required. For more information or to reserve tickets, contact the Army Heritage Center Foundation at 717-258-1102 or eddirector@armyheritage.org.

The Central Penn Business Journal has named Barley Snyder partner Kimberly Decker to its annual "Women of Influence" list.
