As Barley Snyder's client base and workload continues to increase, the firm has added additional attorneys and staff to its growing roster of professionals. Ambria Armstrong joined the firm as part of the firm's Business Practice Group; Josh Strickland is a paralegal who joined the firm, and is working in the firm's Immigration Practice Group; Cheryl A. Myers is a paralegal in the Barley Snyder Litigation Practice Group and the Health Care Industry Group. "These three new professionals epitomize the types of people we are looking to add at the firm," Barley Snyder managing partner Jeff Lobach said. "They bring with them a mix of experience and also youthful exuberance with a willingness to learn and grow their craft." Lobach added the firm's immediate growth isn't complete, as it plans to announce three more attorney hires in the fall.

Mid Penn Bank recently presented more than 100 first responder organizations in Pennsylvania with a total of $24,000 through the bank's First Responders Donation Program. The donations were made through Mid Penn Bank and Scottsdale Bank & Trust, a division of Mid Penn Bank, located in Western PA. The First Responders Donation Program was instituted by the bank years ago to thank the fire companies, ambulance associations, and other organizations that protect and serve the local community. The program rewards Mid Penn Bank first responder customers with donations that support the delivery of critical emergency services.

Mountz Jewelers Co-Owners Tonia Ulsh and Ron Leitzel were thrilled to support the local community once again by making a $2,000 donation to the Carlisle Borough Police Department's K-9 program last week. Mountz knows the importance of local law enforcement and is happy to be able to provide support to them, as they support us all year long. If interested in also donating to the expansion of the Carlisle K-9 unit contact the Carlisle Police Department at 717-243-5252. Jackson, who they hope will join Chaos, does need additional funds to support his efforts in joining the team.

NAI CIR is proud to announce the addition of two new team members: Emma Weikel was hired as Marketing Director, overseeing our company brand and managing our listing marketing. After 5 years in corporate marketing, she brings a fresh perspective and creative eye to our marketing approach. Emma is focused on cultivating our brand recognition and transforming our online and offline presence. Sarah Chabaoui joined our team as Agent Support, assisting with office operations and listing management. With a background in operations and logistics, she will enhance our business development and ensure client satisfaction. In addition, Sarah is working to earn her real estate license, which will further expand her role at NAI CIR. Two new tenants join the State Street Plaza, located at 829 State Street in Lemoyne. The new tenants will lease the remaining 7,093 square feet. The retail center is now fully leased and features a variety of businesses and shops. Dan Alderman and David Alderman, of NAI CIR, represented the landlord.

RKL eSolutions LLC, a nationwide leader in ERP software and IT consulting, is the #31 value-added reseller (VAR) in the United States, according to a 2021 ranking from industry publication Accounting Today. The company, which is a subsidiary of advisory firm RKL LLP, earned its spot on the 2021 VAR 100 list thanks to 2020 revenue of $27 million. "Rankings like these are an indicator of our success helping small and medium-sized businesses across the nation extend, enhance and evolve their IT infrastructure," said RKL eSolutions President Joe Noll. "We're grateful to serve as a strategic partner to organizations, especially at a time when technology solutions are more vital than ever."

The Salvation Army Harrisburg SHOE STRUT event is Friday, October 1st. Join us at the Hershey Lodge for networking, lunch, silent and live auctions, a fashion trends presentation, contests and more! Proceeds from the event provide funding for The Salvation Army's 11 programs and services to the local community. Also, each ticketed guest enables a child in need to receive a voucher for a new pair of shoes which they get to select from a local retailer. And when kids have shoes they're proud of, they're far more likely to succeed in school! Visit www.shoestrut.com for sponsorship and ticket information, or email Cindy at cindy.minnich@use.salvationarmy.org. But hurry—we expect this event will once again sellout.
