

Comfort Suites Camp Hill Celebrates Grand Opening of Hotel

CAMP HILL, PA: On Thursday, April 8th the Comfort Suites Camp Hill – Harrisburg West celebrated the grand opening of their new hotel located at 100 Bar South Drive, Camp Hill, which opened its doors to guests in January of 2021. The site was the home of the former Senate Plaza building, which now features a Sheetz, Starbucks, First Watch restaurant, and various other retail and food locations. The hotel is located near Penn State Health Holy Spirit Medical Center, Rite Aid Corporation, Gannett Fleming, and numerous other medical and corporate offices.

Weathervane Capital Partners, J.C. Bar Properties, and Triple Crown Corporation, teamed with Hospitality Asset Management Company to develop a Comfort Suites by Choice Hotels International located directly off the Erford Road exit of the Harvey Taylor Bridge bypass; which features 113 rooms including 16 one bedroom with full kitchenette suites, meeting facilities and an expanded fitness center. Hospitality Asset Management Company will provide daily operational management and oversight for the property.
