

Pennian Bank Celebrates Grand Opening of New Loan Production Office

CAMP HILL, PA: On Tuesday, June 29th Mifflintown-based Pennian Bank celebrated the Grand Opening of their new loan production office in Cumberland County with a ribbon cutting celebration. The new office is located at 2120 Market St. in Camp Hill and will open on June 14. The office will house part of the Pennian commercial team. Loan support staff will also share the office space.

“We are excited to continue our expansion in the Capital Region,” Dragan Dodik, senior vice president and market executive for Pennian Bank said in a press release. “As a community bank, we believe in a relationship-based banking philosophy. The addition of this loan production office will allow us to better serve our customers. We look forward to building on our momentum and the outstanding success we’ve had in the region over the last few years.”

Pennian Bank was founded in 1864 and has 10 offices located in Juniata, Perry and Cumberland Counties. Pennian Bank first made its debut in Cumberland County two years ago when it opened a branch at 559 N. 12th Street in Lemoyne.
