

Plum Bottom Celebrates Grand Opening of New Location

CAMP HILL, PA: On Friday, July 23rd women's shoe retailer Plum Bottom celebrated the grand opening of their Cumberland County store with a ribbon cutting. Plum Bottom has opened a location at the Neighbors & Smith shopping center at 1801 Market Street in Camp Hill. Plum Bottom carries women's shoes from size 5 to 11 in a variety of widths and features mostly European brands. The store sells leisure footwear, summer footwear, slippers, dress shoes and more, and also sells some accessories including jackets and handbags.

Plum Bottom has been in business in the Harrisburg area with a variety of stores over the years. The parents of the current owner, Carla Irvin, founded the store in 1977. Plum Bottom is currently owned by Irvin and Andrea Mason. The store opened on Monday, March 1st. Plum Bottom joins six other tenants at the Neighbors & Smith shopping center. Smith Land & Improvement Corporation, the shopping center owner, purchased several buildings along Market Street in Camp Hill across from its headquarters in December 2017. The company redeveloped the properties at 1801, 1845, 1847 and 1849 Market St. into a 40,000-square-foot shopping center, now known as Neighbors & Smith.
