

2021 GOLF FORE BUSINESS! OUTING NONPROFIT CHECK PRESENTATION

CAMP HILL, PA: On Wednesday, December 15th the West Shore Chamber of Commerce presented the Chamber nonprofit recipient of this year's Golf FORE Business! Outing, The Cracked Pot Coffee Shop, with a check for a donation. This was the first year that we have held this new golf outing and it was hosted at Rich Valley Golf on August 27th, 2021. We look forward to continuing to give back to another Chamber member nonprofit with proceeds from the golf outing when it is held in 2022.

The Cracked Pot Coffee Shop is owned and operated by Emily Schmidt, who opened a faith-based, non-profit coffee shop that will employ foster children aging out of foster care in her hometown. Their mission is to be the hands and feet of Jesus by loving, listening and mentoring the youth we have the pleasure to work with all while providing our community with excellent drinks, food and service.
