Mid Penn Bank is proud to announce that it has awarded the Mid Penn Bank Anna Woodside Scholarship to four outstanding high school seniors. The annual scholarship rewards deserving students with $1,000 each for college tuition costs. The 2022 Anna Woodside Scholarship recipients are: Camille Kuczynski of Hempfield High School, Jaleah Bowman-Blanton of Coatesville Area Senior High School, Margaret Doherty of Central Dauphin High School, and Stephan Anthony Spolski of Nativity BVM High School. Mid Penn Bank is proud to announce its new collaboration with HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College ("HACC"), to create a career pathway program for high school graduates entering the workforce. This joint venture ensures that those in the program have guaranteed access to higher education while gaining valuable firsthand experience through positions with the Bank. The Bank believes that this strategic partnership will be key to hiring and retaining a strong community-focused workforce while providing a path to higher education to those who may not otherwise have had the opportunity to attend college. After graduation from the program, upon obtaining an associate degree, the employees may choose to continue their academic pursuits while working through Mid Penn's tuition reimbursement program.

The former Fusion Fire Asian Restaurant, located at 3421 Simpson Ferry Road, has been sold to Double Tree Realty LLC. Industry publication Accounting Today has released the 2022 edition of its top 150 CPA-affiliated firms by assets under management (AUM) list and RKL Wealth Management LLC claimed the 39th spot. The investment advisory firm, which is a subsidiary of CPA and advisory leader RKL LLP, reported AUM of more than $1.467 billion as of early May 2022 when Accounting Today collected the survey data. RKL Wealth Management is one of four Pennsylvania firms among the top 40, and the only one based in the central part of the commonwealth. "Congratulations to the RKL Wealth Management team on this national recognition," said RKL CEO Ed Monborne. "Our strong AUM is a reflection of the trust we've earned from individuals, families and business owners throughout Pennsylvania and beyond by helping them plan for and lead their most fulfilling lives." RKL Wealth Management delivers a full spectrum of financial planning, tax, investment and advisory services. The firm first crossed the $1 billion AUM threshold in March 2018, and continues to reach new heights thanks to strong growth in existing accounts, expansion into new markets and new client acquisition.
