Barley Snyder partner Maria Di Stravolo Elliott has been named to the Fulton Theatre Board of Trustees. Elliott is a partner in Barley Snyder's Real Estate Practice Group, Construction Industry Group and other firm groups. She has a passion for the performing arts, singing as a cantor at St. James Catholic Church in Lititz and performing in various musicals and comedies during her younger years. Barley Snyder attorney Martin R. Siegel has recently been named president of The Daily Pennsylvanian Alumni Association (DPAA) – an organization of alumni contributing to the University of Pennsylvania's student newspaper, The Daily Pennsylvanian. Barley Snyder continues to grow and expand its group of attorneys, as the firm has hired two new associates, Tasha R. Stoltzfus Nankerville and Charmaine E. Nyman.

Belco Community Credit Union, in recognition of its 28-year partnership with UPMC in Central Pa. has made a $2,500 donation to UPMC Pinnacle Foundation's Philip W. Guarneschelli Legacy Fund. The donation comes on the heels of Mr. Guarneschelli's recent retirement as President of UPMC in Central Pa., capping off a 36-year career serving the communities in our region. Proceeds from this fund will be used to support two groups close to Phil's heart: UPMC in Central Pa. employees and those less fortunate and underserved in our community. BELCO Community Credit Union began its relationship with UPMC in Central Pa. through the merger of Capital Health Systems/PinnacleHealth Systems Credit Union on April 1, 1994. After 28 years, BELCO remains committed to serving the employees of UPMC Central Pa Region, their volunteers, visitors/patients, and the communities they serve. For more information about Belco, please visit www.belco.org

In order to fulfill schools' requests, we need the help of our business community now more than ever. That's where you come in! If you would like to learn more about what we do and how your company or organization can support JA and area students at the same time, please reach out so we can schedule a time to chat. We are committed to the students and schools we serve and couldn't do this without our amazing volunteers! Want to know more about specific programs? Click HERE for program overviews.

Landmark's Chief Operating Officer, Barb Murdocca, has been selected to serve on the Pennsylvania Association of Realtors (PAR) Executive Committee. She will be representing the commercial sector. "As the past chairperson for the Commercial, Industrial & Investment committee for PAR, I continue to be a strong advocate for our commercial association members and improving our resources, educational opportunities, and association support," stated Murdocca. "I look forward to helping the state association in my new role, as advocate and commercial liaison." Murdocca's commercial real estate career began in a property management role over two decades ago in Washington, DC. She has been with Landmark Commercial Realty since 2013 and is a licensed Realtor®.

McKonly & Asbury, a regional accounting and business advisory services firm, announced they have been chosen as one of the Best Places to Work in PA for 2022. This marks the 18th time in 20 years that McKonly & Asbury has been recognized for this honor. Organizations are chosen on the basis of a rigorous evaluation that considers company policies, benefits, and direct feedback from employees. "Qualifying as one of the Best Places to Work in PA for the 18th time is an incredible honor," noted Managing Partner, Michael Hoffner. "It's a testament to the efforts of our team members, who continue to embrace our core values: We, Not Me; How Can I?; Take Initiative; and Keep Perspective. Our sustained culture of excellence is a result of their focus, dedication, and efforts to build a culture worthy of being acknowledged as one of the best places to work in Pennsylvania.
