

Mr Sticky' Celebrates Grand Opening of Cumberland County Store

CAMP HILL, PA: On Thursday, March 2nd, Mr Sticky's celebrated the grand opening of their first store in Cumberland County with a private ribbon cutting. Located at 4830 Carlisle Pike at the Hampden Centre, it will be selling their signature addictive sticky buns in original, cinnamon, walnut, and raisin. The local franchise is owned and operated by Philip Stuck, local businessman and retired veteran who is a fan of the product.

During the ribbon cutting Steve Lubart, the West Shore Chamber of Commerce board president said, "It is always a special occasion to welcome a new business to our local community. And this occasion was made all the 'sweeter' with such a renowned brand choosing Mechanicsburg for its newest location. We encourage the community to come out and support this small, veteran-owned business; you will not be disappointed!"

Mr Sticky's will be open Monday through Saturday from 6:00 am - 3:00 pm. To learn more about the franchise please visit www.mrstickyscentralpa.com.
