

Phoenix Physical Therapy Celebrates Ribbon Cutting & Grand Opening at Messiah University's Winding Hill Campus

CAMP HILL, PA: On Thursday, February 2nd Phoenix Physical Therapy celebrated the grand opening of their new location at Messiah University's Winding Hill Campus. This partnership will bring an outpatient clinic into the same facility as Messiah's accredited Doctor of Physical Therapy and Master of Occupational Therapy programs. It will be led by Messiah alum Kelly Thomas Clancy '06. Clancy brings more than 13 years of experience caring for patients in various settings.

About Phoenix Physical Therapy

Phoenix Physical Therapy creates distinctly different and personalized experiences for our patients, teams and communities. The company, with over 1,000 employees, operates more than 150 community-based clinics across the United States. The Phoenix team is committed to providing the highest quality physical therapy, occupational therapy and athletic training care.

About Messiah University

Founded in 1909 and located near Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Messiah University is a nationally ranked, private Christian university of the liberal and applied arts and sciences that enrolls nearly 3,300 undergraduate, adult degree program and graduate students. The partnership with Phoenix is facilitated through The Bridge Center for Continuing Education and the Office of University Partnerships at Messiah University.

Please see the attached photo taken from the celebration.

About The West Shore Chamber of Commerce

The West Shore Chamber of Commerce is a dynamic business organization that advances member success, influences issues and exemplifies strong business performance. The Chamber represents, promotes and facilitates business for the community. To learn more about the West Shore Chamber of Commerce, visit www.wschamber.org.