

TownePlace Suites by Marriott Celebrates Completion of Renovations with Ribbon Cutting and Open House

CAMP HILL, PA: On Wednesday, June 28th, TownePlace Suites by Marriott Harrisburg West Mechanicsburg celebrated the completion of the renovations at their 4915 Ritter Rd, Mechanicsburg location. A full-interior renovation was completed for the 120 suite hotel and was unveiled during the open house, networking mixer, and ribbon cutting. The renovation project includes the suites in the hotel, lobby, breakfast area, indoor pool, fitness room and outdoor patio with two new grilling stations and an expanded fire pit. The new modern design also features a dual twin sleeper sofa that expands into a pull out memory foam mattress in each studio, one-bedroom and two-bedroom suites.

This location is owned by High Hotels Ltd., a division of Lancaster-based High companies. They have been in the area, serving the Mechanicsburg community for over 20 years along with their other two hotels in the immediate area, Homewood Suites by Hilton Harrisburg-West Hershey Area and Hampton Inn Harrisburg West.
