

ARS of Camp Hill Celebrates New Program

CAMP HILL, PA: On Thursday, September 26th, ARS of Camp Hill celebrated the launch of their Virtual Intensive Outpatient Program. This program allows their clients to complete this program from the comfort of their own home and removes the hardship of transportation that can sometimes hinder their treatment.

ARS Treatment Center is an accredited provider specializing in treating substance abuse disorders. They provide group, individual, and family counseling, and medication-assisted treatment in an intensive outpatient program focused on recovery.

To learn more about their organization and the other locations in their company visit www.arshealth.com or their social channels.

Please see the attached photo taken from the celebration.
