

Communities in Schools of PA Celebrates New Location

CAMP HILL, PA: On Wednesday, August 28th, Communities in Schools of Pennsylvania celebrated their new office location with a ribbon cutting celebration! They recently moved their offices from Harrisburg and are now located at 2151 Market Street in Camp Hill.

Communities In Schools of Pennsylvania is focused on helping children build the best life they can by helping them overcome obstacles. Every child is unique and requires an individualized approach in order to succeed. Whether a child needs extra academic help, a mentor, a health check-up, additional food supplies or even employment training, Communities In Schools Pennsylvania is there to make sure each child gets exactly what they need. Communities In Schools of Pennsylvania is one of 26 state affiliates, plus the District of Columbia, that comprises the Communities In Schools National Network. Established in 1994, Communities In Schools Pennsylvania currently encompasses two local Communities In Schools affiliates: Central Pennsylvania and Eastern Pennsylvania.
