The Kiwanis Club of Greater West Shore is celebrating their 75th anniversary this year. The Club is recruiting new members and increasing their technology while focusing on their mission of improving the world, one child, one community at a time. The Club has made great strides; yet there is more to do. The goal is to increase the Club's membership and expand their Service Leadership Programs to other high schools and middle schools in our community. We are asking businesses in our service area to consider a donation to help us move forward. The Club will recognize businesses donating $750 or more on the Club's anniversary website and at their upcoming dinner celebration, scheduled for January 22, 2025. Businesses may donate through our website www.greaterwestshorekiwanis.org or by check to PO Box 84, Lemoyne PA 17043.

Mid Penn Bank has received approval from the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to open a new full-service retail financial center in Camden County at 2 Cooper St., Camden, NJ 08102. The new office is the Bank's first full-service financial center in Camden, NJ. The Bank anticipates opening the office in January 2025, following renovations. "We are pleased to announce our continued expansion into the Greater Philadelphia metro area and are thrilled to bring this conveniently located, state-of-the-art facility, to our new and existing customers," Chief Retail Officer Joan Dickinson said. "We look forward to sharing Mid Penn's exceptional banking services and community support approach to the organizations, residents and businesses in the surrounding area." Customers will be able to conduct traditional banking and account servicing and will have access to a comprehensive offering of trust, wealth management and insurance solutions. The financial center is located on the Camden waterfront in the Triad1828 Centre and features on-site parking with convenient access from Interstate 676 and the Benjamin Franklin Bridge.

New Hope Ministries, a social service agency which feeds the hungry and helps people achieve stability in their lives, is asking for help from the community to provide low-income families with turkeys for Thanksgiving dinner this year. At the time of this news release, 2,000 turkeys are still needed. Community organizations (such as churches, businesses, and civic groups) are already lined-up to provide non-perishable food for the Thanksgiving dinner baskets, which are distributed to families beginning November 21 at each of New Hope's nine locations. Turkeys are usually obtained as separate donations from the community and through purchases at local wholesale and retail outlets. The goal is to give every family a turkey for Thanksgiving dinner. Donations of fresh or frozen turkeys are the highest need right now, and can be dropped-off at any New Hope location through November 20th. Volunteer opportunities to help distribute Thanksgiving dinner baskets to families are also available. For more information, please visit our website at www.nhm-pa.org.

The Foundation for Enhancing Communities (TFEC) is thrilled to announce the relaunch of its Emerging Philanthropists Program (EPP) in 2025, opening new pathways for south central Pennsylvania's emerging business and community leaders to make a lasting impact in their region. Since its founding in 2014, EPP has empowered participants to contribute to the community by providing essential resources, guidance and a platform to understand and engage with local philanthropic needs. The program's redesign aligns with TFEC's core values of inclusion, stewardship and endurance by preparing emerging leaders to meet the region's needs now and in the future. EPP offers a unique opportunity for those passionate about social responsibility to foster a deeper understanding of community needs while also supporting the development of local philanthropic networks. Interested individuals are encouraged to learn more and apply through TFEC's website at www.tfec.org. Join us in building a stronger, more connected central Pennsylvania. For further information, please contact TFEC's communications team at info@tfec.org or 717-236-5040.

UPMC Harrisburg has been redesignated as a Baby-Friendly Hospital, a prestigious recognition awarded by Baby-Friendly USA. UPMC Harrisburg has successfully met the rigorous criteria required for this designation, reaffirming its dedication to supporting breastfeeding and improving maternal and infant health outcomes. The Baby-Friendly designation is conferred for a 5-year period. The recognition was first awarded to UPMC Harrisburg in 2014. "The health benefits of breastfeeding for mothers and their babies are well-documented and acknowledged by health authorities globally," said Amber LeCadre, maternity project coordinator, UPMC Magee-Womens Harrisburg. "Our team is committed to empowering mothers by providing comprehensive support and education, equipping them with the resources and confidence they need to make informed decisions about infant feeding."
