Barley Snyder partner Jeremy D. Frey has been named an executive co-chair for the Alzheimer's Association Greater Pennsylvania Chapter's 2025 York Walk to End Alzheimer's. Frey is a member of Barley Snyder's Business and Real Estate practice groups and also serves on the firm's management committee. He is licensed to practice law in both Pennsylvania and Maryland. Barley Snyder attorney Julia M. Parrish has been named to the York Habitat for Humanity's Philanthropy Committee. Parrish is a member of Barley Snyder's Trusts & Estates Practice Group. Barley Snyder partner Joshua L. Schwartz has been named to the Ephrata Performing Arts Center's Board of Directors.

Big Brothers Big Sisters (BBBS) of South-Central PA is celebrating the invaluable role mentoring plays in empowering youth and fostering stronger communities. BBBS of South-Central PA Program Coordinator Lindsey Baumer visited Susquenita High School and surprised Senior Alize Reyes during chemistry class. Reyes was nominated by BBBS of South-Central PA staff in January as part of the organization's National Mentoring Month volunteer recognition campaign. Baumer collaborated with Susquenita School District staff to organize the surprise. Reyes volunteers with BBBS of South-Central PA as a High School Big, spending time each month mentoring a younger student.

Boyer & Ritter is pleased to announce that Allison Wilson, a Manager with the firm, is among the 25 women nominated for the YWCA of Greater Harrisburg's 36th Annual Tribute to Women of Excellence awards. "I am deeply honored to be recognized among such an incredible group of women who are making a difference in our community," said Wilson, a CPA who joined Boyer & Ritter in 2019. "This recognition shows the collective impact we can achieve when we lift each other up and work together to create positive change." The official award ceremony will be Thursday, March 26, at Hershey Lodge. Visit <https://www.ywcahbg.org/event/twemain/> for more information and to buy tickets for the reception.

Nonprofits are invited to apply for grants that support arts, community development, education, the environment, health and human services through The Foundation For Enhancing Communities (TFEC). The deadline to apply for this round of grants is Thursday, May 1, 2025. Eligible applicants must have 501c3 status, utilize a fiscal sponsor with 501c3 status or demonstrate nonprofit status as a church, school or similar entity. Applicants may apply to multiple grant opportunities but may not submit more than one grant for each opportunity. The application may begin at any time during the open application period. TFEC grantmaking does not fund advertising, capital campaigns, direct lobbying to influence legislation, individuals, religious organizations to propagate religious doctrine or retroactive projects. TFEC believes that all voices are vital for our region's future. We promote equity and embrace the diversity of individuals, ideas and expressions. TFEC has served this region for over 100 years. As a community foundation, it connects donors with local projects that help neighbors in need. It manages charitable funds and gives nonprofits the tools and guidance they need to serve people better. TFEC works to build a brighter future for everyone by investing in programs and partnering with the community. For more information about these grants and how to apply, please visit www.tfec.org/nonprofits/grants-overview/.

To meet the growing demand locally for convenient access to UPMC's specialty services, UPMC has opened UPMC Children's Express Care at 21 Waterford Drive, Mechanicsburg, Pa., a new after-hours care center just for kids. The office will be open to treat minor injuries and illnesses for kids and teens when the regular pediatrician's office is closed. For more information, please call 717-988-9181 or visit UPMC.com/CentralPaPediatrics. Beginning Feb. 11, 2025, two UPMC Magee-Womens offices in York, UPMC Obstetrics & Gynecology Specialists-York and UPMC Maternal Fetal Medicine, located at 1880 Kenneth Road, Suite 3, York, PA 17408 are moving to 1703 Innovation Drive, Entrance C, Suite 3136, York, PA 17408. The new location, which is inside UPMC Memorial, provides more direct access to the hospital for labor and delivery. "At UPMC Magee-Womens, we are committed to providing exceptional care to our community in York," said Kenneth Oken, M.D., medical director of Obstetrics & Gynecology, UPMC Magee-Womens in Central Pa. "With comprehensive care available in one convenient location, it makes way for more collaboration, convenience, and comprehensive care for patients, offering comfort and ease to all our patients, from preventative care to pregnancy and beyond."
