Barley Snyder is proud to announce that attorney Sarah L. Doyle has been named Central Penn Business Journal's 2026 "Women of Influence" list and attorney Jayne R. Katherman has been named to the 2026 "Women to Watch" list. The CPBJ Women of Influence awards honor high-achieving women for their career accomplishments. The honorees are selected based on their professional experience, community involvement and commitment to mentoring. Women to Watch honors successful women under the age of 35 who are the next generation of leaders. The honorees were selected by a panel of judges comprised of previous years' Women of Influence recipients and CPBJ editors. All honorees will be recognized at an awards celebration on June 24 at the Sheraton Harrisburg Hershey Hotel. To view the full list of honorees, please visit: <https://www.cpbj.com/event/women-of-influence/>

Barley Snyder is proud to announce it has hired four law students to participate in its 2026 Summer Associate Program. The eight-week program is designed to give aspiring attorneys practical, hands-on legal training in a dynamic law firm environment. Participating in the program are: Michael T. Agadis, a second-year law student at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. Grace E. Fox is a second-year law student at Penn State Dickinson Law. Pietro G. Porco is a second-year law student at Penn State Dickinson Law. Lauren E. Weaver is a second-year law student at Widener University Commonwealth Law School. During the program, the summer associates will work directly on active legal matters, rotate throughout the firm's offices, and receive assignments across its various practice areas, industry groups and service teams. They will also have the opportunity to participate in social and networking events designed to build professional relationships with experienced attorneys throughout Pennsylvania and Maryland. Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that partner Jeff Lobach has been awarded the Richard E. Kohler Civility and Ethics Award by the Herbert B. Cohen Chapter of the American Inns of Court.

With an eye toward enhancing the firm's development of future leaders and maintaining strong financial operations, Boyer & Ritter has announced a new Talent Development Coordinator and hired a new Senior Accountant for its internal finance team. Emily Consoletti has been named Talent Development Coordinator. Consoletti joined Boyer & Ritter in 2021 and earned a BS in Accounting with a secondary emphasis in Communication and an MBA from Juniata College. Jessica Brautigam has joined Boyer & Ritter's internal Finance team as a Senior Accountant. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and Marketing, magna cum laude, from West Chester University. Boyer & Ritter Managing Partner Lisa Myers said the new positions enhance the firm's ability to develop future leaders, support team members, and maintain strong financial operations.

Leading accounting and advisory firm, Brown Plus, is pleased to share that Devin Brown, CPA, MBA, Audit Senior Manager, has recently graduated from Leadership Harrisburg Area's (LHA) Community Leadership Series (CLS) Class of 2026. LHA is a private, nonprofit organization that envisions an inclusive community of diverse servant leaders effectively collaborating to raise the quality of life in Pennsylvania's Capital Region. The CLS is designed for those seeking to expand their leadership skills, gain insights into the issues and challenges of the Central Pennsylvania community, build professional networks and participate in hands-on community service projects. The CLS Class of 2026 graduated as part of an LHA Champagne Brunch and 40th Anniversary Celebration that took place on Thursday, May 21, at the Penn Harris Hotel.
